WOMEN ONLY GUESTS AT NEWPORT PARTIES

Mrs. Arthur Curtiss

of Fairies.

Newport, R. I., July 15.—Arrivals at Newport to-day included Mrs. A. J. Cassatt of Philadelphia, Edward B. McLean, Wash-ington, Mrs. Theodore F. Kane, Newport; Mrs. Benjamin Seabury, Providence, and John Jay Whitehead, Jr., Hartford, a guest of Col. Charles L. F. Robinson.

Parties exclusively for the women were leatures of the afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin gave a large lunch eon at heriome, Saug Harbor, and later in the afternoon, Saug Harbor, and later in the afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin gave a large lunch eon at heriome, Saug Harbor, and later in the afternoon. veral of the guests were entertained Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James aboard her son, Miss Fanny L. Johnson, Mrs. H. McK.

Twombly, Mrs. George Henry Warren,
Mrs. Charles F. Hoffman, Mrs. R. Horace
Gallatin, Mrs. William Storrs Wells, Miss
Townsend, Mrs. David King, Mrs. Ogden,
Mrs. J. C. Mallery, Mrs. Arthur Curtiss
James, Miss De Barril, Mrs. R. T. Wilson,
Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. James P. Kernothan, Mrs. George B. DeForest, Mrs. Arms.
Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Description.

Bakmeteff at the Russian Embassy and Mrs. Robert Goelet at Eastbourne Lodge.

on an auto tour in the White Mountains, have returned here.

The German Ambassador, Count Bern-storff, is in New York until Thursday. Mrs. J. Stewart Barney will give a small dance on Friday evening.

Mrs. James B. Haggin is arranging for a large dinner followed by dancing at Arleigh have returned from New London on the steam yacht Josephine.

Miss Martha A. Codman left for New York to-day. She is going abroad to re-main until the early fall. Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe Wickes have arrived at their summer home, Zee Rust, in Narragansett Expect Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is to return from sbroad early in September and will be a guest of Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs at Rosecliff time to arrange for the finishing touches on the Japanese tea house which is being erected on the lawn of her Marble House that another feature of the ball at Crossways will be the appearance of eight young women of the summer colony as fairies.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Reynal of New York have arrived for the summer and are

York arrived to-day at the Bristow cottage,

Miss Louise Scott was among the dinner

SOCIETY AT NARRAGANSETT. Roberts-Weish Wedding-Reginald

Vanderbilt Arrives. RRAGANSETT PIER, July 15 .-- Miss

Sarah Irvine Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lowber Welsh and Carlyl Roberts, son of Mrs. C. H. Roberts in the Episcopal Church of the Ascension at Wakefield, R. I., by the Rev. Frederick E. Seymour, rector of the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Florence E. Johnson, Miss Helen Philler, Miss Adeline L. F. Pepper and sa Helen C. Brinton of Philadelphia. Graham Roberts, brother of the bride-groom, was the best man, and the ushers were Frank Burke, Radeliffe Cheston. Welsh, a brother of the and Jack Catteau A wedding breakfast followed the cere-

at Shadow Farm, the summer place

Hoberts, G. Theodore Roberts. and Mrs. Archibald G. Thomson, Mr. Mrs. Charles N. Welsh of Newport. and Mrs. Charles Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newbold, the Misses whold, the Misses Hannah and Emily olph and H. M. Neeley, Jr., of the bride, plan to sail for Vanderbilt of Newport was sitor at the Casino to-day.

SOCIETY AT BAR HARBOR.

Bradley on July 26. HARROR, July 15 .- Miss Helen who with her mother, Mrs. J. Mont-Sears, is at Gouldsboro, will leave Southboro, Mass., where she married to J. Cameron Bradley 26. Miss Sears and her mother Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, at Elsi- Bingham.

Temperature at Jersey Resorts.

A HANTIC CITY, July 15 .- The temper-75 at noon here to-day PARK, July 15.—The temperawas 72 at noon here to-day.

SOCIETY AT LENOX.

liss Kate Cary Drives New Pair of Bays in a Light Trap.

LENOX, July 15.—After the luncheon to-day many cottagers were out with their horses on the Lenox drive. Miss Kate Cary, who drove with Miss Katherine Gandy, Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin and bad a pair of new bays in a light trap. Miss Charlotte Barnes has a thoroughbred saddle horse for morning canters into the village. James Hostesses.

James Hostesses.

ARRANGE BRILLIANT BALL

ARRANGE BRILLIANT BALL

ARRANGE BRILLIANT BALL

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Dixoy gave a function at Tanglewood. Their table was decorated with roses. Included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos de Heredia, Mrs. Robert Woodworth, Miss Nancy Craig Whart on, Miss Rosalle Goodman, Thatcher N. Adams and Eustage Jaques.

Eight Girls of Summer Colony
Will Appear in Guise

Mrs. M. Dwight Collier was hostess at the Ludlow cottage. Her luncheon guests were Mrs. Albert R. Shattuck, Mrs. George Griswold Haven, Mrs. A. Parkman Shaw, Mrs. David Turner Dana, Mrs. Boss W. Whistler, Miss Adele Kneeland and Miss Katherine Gandy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wray Cleveland, Miss Marjorie Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Woolworth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomp-son and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin S. Major of New York are at Heaton Hall, Stockbridge.

At the Red Lion Inn are Mr. and Mrs

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Benjamin arrived to-day to visit Mrs. Benjamin's mother, Mrs. William B. Bacon, at Rock Mrs. Baldwin's luncheon list included Mrs. Baldwin's luncheon list included Mrs. E. H. G. Slater, Miss Gwynn, Mrs. harles B. Hillhouse, Mrs. C. L. F. Robinson, Miss Fanny L. Johnson, Mrs. H. McK.

Mrs. Burke Roche, Mrs. James P. Kernochan, Mrs. George B. DeForest, Mrs. Amos Pinchot, Mrs. Tompkins McIlvaine, Mrs. It Livingston Ludlow, Mrs. Frederick in the women's golf tournament which opens to-morrow at the County Club of Pittsfield. Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, who had been in Newport visiting Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly, have returned

Miss Katherine Gandy is a guest of Miss Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Jr., Mrs. Walter S.
Andrews and Mrs. E. T. Gerry were among the dinner hostesses this evening.

Rate Cary at Buttering Cortage Agriculture Corta Mr. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, who have been James R. Jesup at Curtis Hotel, returned

James R. Jesup at Curtis Hotel, returned to New York to-day.
Mr. and Mrs. William Gayer Dominick are motoring with Miss Elsie Dominick. Miss Van Winkle and Miss Hutchinson are at the Curtis Hotel, as are Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hempstead of New York, Mrs. R. Voght and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Block of Brooklyn. dinner followed by dancing at Arleigh evening of August 1s.

A. B. Widener and George A. Huhn Hunt as luncheon guests. Dr. and Mrs. Leigh Hunt as luncheon guests. Dr. and Mrs. Hunt are at their villa at Williamsville. Dr. ing Club in Great Barrington on "Post-Impressionism" this week.

Mrs. Charles C. Delmonico and Miss Josephine Delmonico will leave the Maple-yood in Pittsfield to-morrow by automobile for New York. Later in the week they will go to Rockland, Me., as guests of friends. They will return to Pittsfield later in the season.

WEDDINGS.

Fischer-Maclay.

wedding of Miss Agnes Craig daughter of the late Isaac W. and granddaughter of the late estate this summer.

Mrs. Oelrichs is to make the dinner which she is giving on the night of August 1 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, prior to the latter's fairy tale ball, a brilliant one by the illumination of her estate with many fairy lamps. It was learned to-day that such the formed by the Rev. Jonathan Bastow of Port Washington, L. L. who was a protege of the ball estate of the ball estate of the Bayts. the batter's fisty tale ball, a brilliance by the fillumination of her estate with any farry lamps. It was learned to-day at another feature of the ball at Cross of the bride's great-grandfather, the Rev. o ink sweet peas. Edwin P. Fischer of Durham, Conn., rother of the bridegroom, was best man.

There were no ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fischer left for a short wedding trip. They will pass the summer at Sound Beach, Conn., and will afterward live in Orange, N. J. .

Woolley-Duryen.

Flushing, who until a month ago was a teacher in Public School 4, at Prospect and Crescent streets, Long Island City, were married yesterday in the rectory of Christ Church, Manhattan. Mr. Woolley is a descendant of the Woolley family that settled in the vicinity of Lakeville, L. L. before 1700. His bride, who is 4 typical feminist bill, but simply humane that settled in the vicinity of Lakeville, L. L. before 1700. His bride, who is 4 typical feminist bill, but simply humane that settled in the vicinity of Lakeville, bills advocated also by intelligent men in States which have not women suffrage. Twenty States, for instance, said Miss Duryea and is descended from the Duryea Todd, have passed a mother's pension that was appeared to the settled by the settled by the settled the settled by the family that was among the first settlers HACKENBACK, N. J., July 15 .- Miss Edna HACKENSACK, N. J., July 10.—MISS Edna Westervelt Hewson, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Hewson, and Henry G. Stertzer were married to-day by the Rev. Arthur Johnson, pastor of the Second Reformed Church. The maid of honor was Miss Dorothy Sherwood. The best man was Carroll Earle. Mr. and Mrs. Stertzer will and Mrs. Edward Lowber Welsh, pass their honeymoon in Portland, Me.

Plays and Players.

M. Meyerfeld, Jr., president of the Or-pheum Circuit, has secured the American rights to "Der Fliegende Rittmeister" rights to "Der Fliegende Rittmeister" (The Flying Cavalry Officer), a light opera in one act by Leo Stern and Bela Jan-bach, with music by Hermann Dostal. It will be produced here by Martin Beck this winter at the B. F. Keith and Or-pheum Circuit theatres under the title of Baron Reythling."

Winthrop Ames announced yesterday that his $10,000 American play contest would close on August 15, as originally announced. Playwrights have asked for d, and daughter Margaret of New inal ideas of big moments from great Hutchinson Dimock, who had been plays at the Atlantic Yacht Club to-night. will be assisted by Lisle Leigh, Wile result of women voting.

Lobbying.

"The progressive legislation put through." said Miss Todd, "has saved the State hundreds of thousands of del-lars in reformatories, human wasts, criminality, charities, insane asylums and poorhouses by preventing human delinquency, and yet Miss Chittenden attacks these little taxes added to save the State human wreckage and lay the foundations for human life."

John T. Woolley, a retired merchant of The women wanted the vote in Cali-1302 Pacific street, Brooklyn, and Miss forms, Miss Todd said, to prevent slums, exploitation of women, child labor and wretchedness, which they were sure would come when the Panama Canal was finished and immigration went from Europe to San Francisco direct. In the legislation which the women have brought bill and only eight of them were States where women voted.

"The taxes have not been raised," said Miss Todd. "and the community is not a heavily taxed one. The bills the women a heavily taxed one. The bills the woman advocated were for the home, the woman and the child, and here she carps because the carps becaus little money was spent for them. unds like placing the dollar before a Miss Todd is visiting the New York headquarters of the National Suffrage party at 505 Fifth avenue.

ENGINEER CROWELL DEPOSED.

Queens Borough President Acts ou Charges Filed a Year Ago.

Robert R. Crowell of Jamaica, who for more than ten years has been identified with the work of the Topographical Bureau in Queens, was dismissed from the public service yeaterday by Borough President Connolly. Charges of misconduct, inefficiency and neglect of duty were filed July 28, 1912, with the Eorough President by Denis O'Leary, Commissioner of Public Works, Many hearings were held. Findings upon the evidence were sub-mitted to President Connolly yesterday B. McLean.

Aldrich, their son death of Mr. Rears sold their an extension of time, but as he proposes to the effect that some of the charges had been proved, and upon this statement of the Mrs. Richard Aldrich, their son cede to the requests.

BISHOP BOWMAN IS 96.

H. H. Frazee has engaged Calvin Thomas for the leading juvenile role in Thomas for the leading juvenile role in Bowman of the Methodist Church was the guest of honor to-night at a dinner Edward Locke which will open the second season of the Long Acre Theatre on August 11.

| In New York To-day. | Greenwich Villagers' dinner to Assistant District Attorney Frank Moss, Broadway Central Hotel, S P. M. | Band concert, Abingdon Square Park, S P. M. | Band concert, Columbus Park, S P. M. The Silver Wedding," the comedy by Edward Locke which will open the second Mrs. and Mrs. Bradish Johnson of Mr. and Mrs. Bradish Johnson of August 11.

H. H. Frazee has engaged Caivin Bowman of the Methodist Church was the will be at the Malvern House after The Silver Wedding," the comedy by Edward Locke which will open the second season of the Long Acre Theatre on Arrange Mrs. Bradish Johnson of August 11.

H. H. Frazee has engaged Caivin Bowman of the Methodist Church was the guest of honor to-night at a dinner given by his daughter, Mrs. Burns D. Caldwell of High street, in celebration of his ninety-sixth birthday. Bishop Bowman is in remarkable possession of his

TOURISTS BY AUTOMOBILE

on the Ideal Tour in a Locomobile.

NEWCASTLE, N. H., July 15.—Among the automobile arrivals from New York at the Hotel Wentworth to-day were:

Mrs. T. G. Beaham and Miss Beaham in South Orange, N. J., in a Pierce-Arrow.

Mr. party in a Packard.

city, Sunapee, N. H., July 15.—Arrivals of New Yorkers over the Ideal tour at Gran-liden Hotel included W. L. Johnson, W. H. from the sale of his literary was left to his wife, Mrs. Ca Newcastle, N. H., July 15.—Among the automobile arrivals from New York at the Hotel Wentworth to-day were: Dr. T. J. Gosburgh and Mrs. M. S. Gregory, in a Chalmers; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bounicke in an Olds; Mr. and Mrs. D. Jones, Miss Jones, Miss Jones, Miss Jones, Miss William L. Rich, Jr., Meserole in a National; Mr. and Mrs. C. and William J. Hassford in a Pierce-Arrow; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Stamford and party in a Pachard.

Manchester, Vt., July 15.—Arrivals by automobile at the Equinox House to-day included the following from New York:

Mrs. T. G. Beaham and Miss Beaham in Miss Constance Wesley of South Orange, N. J., in a Pierce-Arrow.

ALOIS LERNER COMES IN.

Boy Gov. Eberhart Befriended Per

Lerner, the sixteen-year-old im migrant who had been ordered deported and in whom Gov. Eberhart of Minnesota interested himself, was allowed to enter the Untied States yesterday and started at once for the home of his uncle, Thomas hart himself landed at the old Castle Garden thirty-three years ago, a boy of 9 years and alone, and was sent to his

Notes of the Social World. Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Sheridan of Washington are at the Vanderbilt for a

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh of Washington who has been at the Gotham, left terday for Newport to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean, at their summer home, Black Point Farms.

Charlotte R. Barnes, who are passing the summer-in Lenox, will go to Colebrook, Vt. on July 22 to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Warren Sturgis. are at the St. Regis for a brief visit. They are passing the summer at their cottage at Lake George, N. Y.

taken the Anchorage cottage at Narragan-sett Pier, where they will remain until after the polo season. Mrs. Dudley Olcott, who is passing the summer at her cottage in Southampton, L. L. is at the Plaza for a brief visit.

Miss Gladys McNaury of Cleveland is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ashton Rollins at the Gotham. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ashton Rollins will soon return to their country place. Red Spring. in Glen Cove. L. I. Buren.

EDMUND J. MAURER, who died April 6 last, left $22,630 to his widow, Carrie A. Mr. and Mrs. Mersin Maurer.

CHARLES N. VAN BUREN, a produce merchant, who died March 30, left his entire estate to his widow, Sallie May Van Hermann F. Busch Buren.

Bremund J. Maurer, who died April 6 last, left $22,630 to his widow, Carrie A. Mr. and Mrs. Mersin Mrs. John S. Kennedy Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tyler Hermann F. Busch Buren.

Bremund J. Maurer, who died April 6 last, left $22,630 to his widow, Carrie A. Mrs. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Bigglow Prof. Arthur H. Blanchard Buren.

Buren. Bremen, Southampton, Mrs. John S. Kennedy Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Bigglow Prof. Arthur H. Blanchard Buren.

Buren. Bremen, Southampton, Mrs. John S. Kennedy Mr. and Mrs. Poultney Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tyler Buren.

Buren. Bremen, Weissen Stranger Mrs. John Mrs. J Mrs. Dudley Olcott, who is passing the

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

on May 1, 1911, left $37.084. After be- for the Aze queathing $5,000 to her daughter, Louise and Trieste: Grazzina, the testatrix forbade her daughter from living with her husband, Virgilio Dr. and Mrs. J. Borg-meyer. Grazzina, the testatrix forbade her daughter from living with her husband, Virgilio Dr. and Mrs. J. Borgter from living with her husband, Virgilio Dr. and Mrs. J. Borgter from living with her husband, Virgilio Dr. and Mrs. J. Borgter from Mrs. M.W. W. O'Hara, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Lenger.

brothers, Joseph C. and Louis B. Thoms.

EDMUND J. MAURER, who died April 6

Bremen, Southampton and Cherbourg:

WILLS AND APPRAISALS,

MRS. MARY E. SCHENCK, who died in Brooklyn on May 3 last, left a net estate of $38,500 in equal shares to Edward Schenck, a son, and Mrs. Ida L. De Myers, a daughter.

ARTHUR MULDOON, who died in Brooklyn on April 22 last, by his will provided that his daughter. Sarah C. Muldoon, should receive from his estate $12 a month from the date of his wife's death, in February, 1896, until the testator's death, in recompense for the care she has taken of him. That amounts to $2,475. The residue of the estate is divided between the daughter and the son, Arthur Muldoon, MEMITABLE C. C. WILSON, who died May 29, 1911, at Cambridge, Mass., left the bulk of an estate of $255,768 to more than a hundred charitable, religious and May 29, 1911, at Cambridge, Mass, left the bulk of an estate of $255.766 to more than a hundred charitable, religious and educational organizations in New England and elsewhere. The largest bequest was $20,000 to the Kansas Agricultural College.

PATRICK FARRELLY, founder of the American News Company, left 3,005 shares of stock in the company, appraised at $270,450. His total personal estate was $277,952.

CATERINA FERRER, who conducted a dry goods store for many years at 156 Bleecker street, and who died in Naples on May 1, 1911, left $37,084. After bequeathing $5,000 to her daughter, Louise and Trieste:

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Duenther Mrs. Hunaeus Mrs. M. Sullivan Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Swift, Jr. and Mrs. A. L. Swift, Jr. and Mrs. A. von Reutter-Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Henry J. Wolf Mrs. and Mrs. Bert A. Koehnle Mrs. I Jules Mayer Mrs. Dr. Henry J. Wolf Mrs. Paul Wunderlich John C. Winemann Mrs. L. A. Zacharlas for the Azores, Algiers, Naples, Patras and Trieste:

t Lake George, N. Y.

Countess Giszyka is at the Ritz-Carlton braye I ever got a kind word from him.

The bulk of the estate went to the daughters, Jenste F. Belardi and Mary ken the Anchorage cottage at Narragant tt Pier, where they will remain until fter the polo season.

Grazzina, Decause ne never made me neck. The key, Roger Charling Mr. and Mrs. M. B. R. M. and Mrs. M. B. R. M. and Mrs. M. B. R. M. and Mrs. An

London, July 15.--Prof. Francis Gotch, D. Sc., M. A. Oxford, Hon. Ll. D. St. Andrews, F. R. S., Wayneflete professor of physiology at Oxford, died to-day. He Coming Fifty Strong From

Held Professorships of and Wrote Papers on Physiology. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

Henry M. Thompson,

Edward J. Slevin.

Mrs. Lillian Hartfield.

Dr. William J. Glinnen.

Mrs. C. S. Woolworth.

Prof. Charles Rich.

ing copyrights, royalties and profits

THE SEAGOERS.

Departures To-day for Europe an Arrivals From Abroad.

By the Hamburg-American liner Presi-

F. P. Leite
James Montgomery
Dr. F. B. Mowbray
Mrs Mary May
Mr. and Mrs. David
Pfeiffer
Mr. and Mrs. William
Fatterson, Jr.
The Rev, and Mrs. S. C.
Farridge
Miss Ina Law Robertson
Mr. and Mrs. Harry
Rogers

Rogers r. and Mrs. Heinrich Runken

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander

after an illness of pneumonia.

vania chain of stores.

survived by five sisters.

became interested in charities.

was born in 1853.

PROF. FRANCIS GOTCH DEAD.

TO TOUR AMERICA was born in 1853.

Prof. Gotch was formerly one of the committee for the revision of the translation of the Old Testament. He held several professorships of physiology and published Shakespeare Memorial several papers on the physiology of nerve IN NEW YORK ABOUT JAN. 1

Theatre.

STRATFORD PLAYERS

Henry M. Thompson. Henry Martin Thompson, one of the first three Railroad Commissioners for the State of New York, died at his home, 507 West 186th street, on Monday. He was 71 years old and had been retired from active work for several years. Mr. Thompson was born in this city. After a few years employment in the brokerage house of John B. Murray he accepted a place with the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad. When that road was absorbed by the Erie he remained for several years as division manager. In the early '80s he was appointed to the Railroad Commission. Later he was with the Brooklyn City Rail-Company Fifty Strong From Only Endowed Theatre, and Profits Go to Fund.

house of John B. Murray he accepted a place with the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad. When that road was absorbed by the Erie he remained for several years as division manager. In the early '80s he was appointed to the Railroad Commission. Later he was with the Brooklyn City Railway until that company became a part of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system. He is way until that company became a part of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit system. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

Edward A. Miller.

Edward J. Sievin.

Edward J. Sievin.

The company will reach New York shortly after January 1 and will probably conclude the tour on April 30. They will come here under the business direction of Charles F. Towle, formerly a Washington newspaper man, but for many years connected with theatrical enterprises. A second company of Stratford-upon-Avon Players, but much smaller, will start for South Africa on September 12 under the management of Av. H. Savery.

The Memorial Theatre at Stratford-upon-Avon is the only endowed theatre in England. The theatre, together with the hall and library which adjoin it, was built largely through the munificence of the late Charles Edward Flower and a few of his associates. It was opened in few of his associates. It was opened in 1877 with a performance of "Much Ado About Nothing." Mr. Flower died about two years later, and when his widow died several years afterward she left the the-atre about $300,000. Other gifts have in-Edward J. Slevin, who died on Sunday at his home, 750 Rugby road, Flatbush, in his seventy-third year, was a member of the dry goods firm of James Wardlaw Company, and on its dissolution became a salesman for the H. B. Claffin Company. He was a creased the endowment.

Play Shakespeare as Written.

member of the Seymour Democratic Club and was a Knight of Columbus. He is Since the theatre was first opened there has been a season of Shakespare's plays beginning on April 23, his birthday, and probably his death day as well. Shakeprobably his death day as well. Shake-speare's plays are given as they were written, not a line being changed nor a scene cut. All of his plays have been presented with the exception of "All's Well that Ends Well' and "Titus Androni-cus," which could not well be presented without certain changes, which the board of governors will not permit. The plays are not presented as in the Elizabethan period, but elaborate modern scenery is Mrs. Lillian Hartfield, wife of William Hartfield of Hartfield, Solari & Co., general agents in this country for the Italian Lines, died yesterday at her home, 420 Riverside Drive, after a brief illness. She was born at Buxton, Derbyshire, England. She lived in this country for many years and period, but elaborate modern scenery is used. The sets to be used on the American tour have all been built in England.
So successful have the birthday festivals Dr. William J. Glinnen, a well known Williamsburg physician and brother of Coroner Edward Glinnen of Brooklyn, secome that a second season, beginning in Coroner Edward Glinnen of Brooklyn, died Sunday in St. Catherine's Hospital after an illness of ten days, following an operation. He was born in Williamsburg and was a graduate of Manhattan College and of Bellevue Medical College. He lived at 64 Herbert street. Ada Rehan are the American members of the board of governors.

Works to Be Presented Here. For the American tour the company will

SCRANTON, Pa., July 15.—Mrs. C. S. Woolworth, wife of a member of the big five and ten cent store company, died to-day at the Hahnemann Hospital here present sixteen plays of Shakespeare, in-cluding the cycle of histories: "King John," "King Henry IV.," "King Henry V.." "King Richard II." and "King Richard III." band is resident manager of the Pennsyl-The company will be headed and di-rected by Frank R. Benson, brother of Lord Charnwood and nephew of the Archbishop of Canterbury, who has been re-sponsible for the festivals at Stratford-upon-Avon since 1886 and who since his PLAINFIELD, Conn., July 15 .- Prof. Charles Rich, 69 years old, a genealogist, with main office in New York, died suddenly yesterday at his summer villa in Windham. Prof. Rich was an authority on Anglo-American genealogy. graduation from Oxford University has devoted his labors to the best in dramatic art. Some of the others in the visiting company will be F. Randle Ayrton. Harry Caine, William Calvert, Murray Carrington. Frank Cochrane, Rupert L. Conrick. Darby Foster, Alfred Harris, John Me-Lean, J. R. Mageean, George Manship, Frank Matthews, Leonard Parrish, Basil Rathbone, Harry Stafford, James Stan-ners, Charles Warburton, Edward Warburton, Rosa Burgess, Marion Foreman Dorothy Green, who is said to be the Dorothy Green, who is said to be the foremost Juliet of the stage; Ethel Mo Donall, Ingrid Muller, Nora Pilling and Eve Titheradge. There is a dramatic school in connection with the theatre from which recruits to the regular company are drawn. The members of the dramatic school will accompany the players on the American tour and will appear as mobs, or armies, or other "extra people" as they are needed. Mr. Towle, who arrived here yesterday the tour was not an individual money making scheme. Any profits that might accrue, he said, would go to the endowment fund of the Memorial Theatre.

IN MAXINE ELLIOTT THEATRE. haberts to Put on a New French

Farce There. The Shuberts have decided to open the Maxine Elliott Theatre on Friday, August 1, with "The Gentleman From No. 19," which was adapted from the French by Mark E. Swan. The original authors were Keroul and Barre, who wrote "Une Nuit de Noces," which under the title "Oh, I say" has been successful in London and has been acquired A. Brady for use in this country Sydney Blow and Douglas Hoare made the British version of the farce.

In the company presenting "he play will be Walter Jones, Millicent Evans, Nanette Comstock, Richie Ling, Robert Gibbs, Florine Arnold, Henry Bergman and DIED.

CASALDUC.—Felipe, aged 42. Funeral from "THE FUNERAL CHURCH." 241 West Twenty-third Street (Frank Campbell Building). Time later, In-terment, Pence, Porto Rice.

MILLER.—At Newark, N. J. on Tuesday, July 15, 1913, Edward Alexander Miller, beloved husband of Amelia Barkhorn, in ms arry-second year.

Belatives and friends are kindly invited to attend the funeral on Friday, July 18, at 9:16 A. M. from his late residence. 216 South Seventh street, to St. Mary's Church, where at 10 p'clock a solemn high mass of requiem will be offered for the rence of his soul. the repose of his soul. Interment Cemetery Holy Sepuichre.

ERRY .- On Sunday, July 13, 1913, in his sixty-third year, Charles J. Perry. Funeral services at St. Charles Borromeo's Church, Sydney place, Brooklyn, Wednes. day, July 16, at 9:30 A. M. Funeral private. Please omit flowers MITH .- On Monday, July 14, 1913, James

VAN SCHAICK.—On July 12, at his rest-dence, Pelham, N. Y., Singleton Van Schaick, husband of Francis Isabella Campbell and son of Maria Bradford and the late Jenkins Van Schaick, in the 39th year of his age. Funeral services at Church of Holy Com-munion, South Orange, N. J., on arrival of D. L. and W. train leaving Hoboken

UNDESTABLES.

FRANK E. CAMPBELL SD STREET. em equipment. Saves Ratiroad expense. Ai

PERSONAL.

JULIETTA LEWIS, formerly of Balti-more, Md., if you will communicate with Elmer J. Jones, Attorney at Law, No. 8 Law Building, Baltimore, Md., you will be ad-vised of something important.